

Health Care Accreditation Council

HCAC 5th Quality Conference & Exhibition

November 11 – 13, 2019

Dr. Mohammad Tarawneh

Dr. Tarawneh currently is the Secretary General of the High Health Council. He was Ex-director of PHC, Planning, NCD, Cancer Prevention, Medical Training Directorates. Earned his MD from Leningrad Medical Institute, JMB in Family Medicine , Diploma in Community Medicine, Diploma in Diabetes from UK . He has led a number of major projects within MOH, such as : National Nutritional Survey, National Newborn Screening Program, Community-Based Diabetic Clinics , National NCD strategic plan. He is the author of over 25 peer-reviewed publications. Currently he is the president of Jordan Society of Family Medicine, member of Board of Trustees of Royal Health Awareness Society, member of the International Advisory Board of Research for Health in Conflict in the MENA region .