

Health Care Accreditation Council

HCAC 5th Quality Conference & Exhibition

November 11 – 13, 2019

Eric de Roodenbeke

Eric de Roodenbeke, PhD is a French national holding since June 2008 the position of CEO of the International Hospital Federation. He has previously worked at the World Health Organization and the World Bank leading various health intervention, educational, management and capacity building programs. Before he was Director of several French hospitals of different types and has also worked at the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs for development Aid in health. He has post graduate diploma in health economics, hospital management and public health.